STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Hindi Sahitya Sammelan, Allahabad was established in 1910 and was registered four years later as a society under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860) for the promotion and popularisation of Hindi and its literature in India and abroad. The institution has done yeoman service to the cause of propagation and development of Hindi by producing literature of a very high quality, by conducting examinations and holding annual sessions to focus the attention of the public on the importance of Hindi as a national language.

It is considered that the Sammelan, which has been rendering valuable service to the cause of Hindi, should be placed on a firm basis to enable it to carry on its activities efficiently. The Sammelan is an institution of all India importance. The Bill, therefore, seeks to declare it as an institution of national importance and to incorporate it into a statutory corporation.

The salient features of the Bill are:

- (a) to declare the Hindi Sahitya Sammelan, Allahabad, as an institution of national importance; and
- (b) to provide for the constitution of a Governing Body which will be vested with all necessary powers for carrying out the activities of the Sammelan.

For the purpose of constituting the Governing Body in accordance with the provisions of the Bill, it is necessary to work out certain details, and that will obviously take some time. It is, therefore, proposed to empower the Central Government to appoint the first Governing Body consisting of fifteen members to carry on the affairs of the Sammelan and to work out those details.

The Bill seeks to achieve these objects.

NEW DELHI;
The 7th March, 1962.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 12 of the Bill empowers the first Governing Body to make, with the approval of the Central Government, the first rules of the Sammelan. The matters in respect of which the first rules may be made inter alia relate to membership, including the qualifications and disqualifications for membership, of the Sammelan; the powers and functions of the Governing Body; the conduct of elections for the constitution of the Governing Body and the decisions on doubts and disputes at or in connection with the said elections; affiliation of schools, colleges and other institutions with the Sammelan and award of degrees and academic Distinctions by the Sammelan. Clause 17 of the Bill provides for the amendment of the rules so made.

These are matters of detail and the delegation of legislative power with respect to them is of a normal character.
